COSTS OF COUNTY GOVERNMENT FIXED HERE

OUR TOWN

"I do not prize the word 'cheap.' It is not a word of hope. It is not a word of cheer. It is not a word of inspiration. It is the badge of poverty. It is the signal of distress. Cheap merchandise makes cheap men. Cheap men make a cheap country." That was written by William McKinley in 1890 and it is worth more than just casual consideration, don't you think?

Capitulation of the big newspapers before the Texas ballot box and the results obtained when the folks got through voting in the last Primary and nominated 'Ma' is in a sense heartening. After advising what might be done with 'thin majorities' at a convention the Dallas News now says 'right is right' and the sensible thing is to declare Mrs. Ferguson the nominee at Lubbock. Nearly a half million Texans said the same thing in a better attempt to institute good government in Texas. A majority of 3870 is as good as a million so far as the plain duty of the convention goes.

Political history may be made at Lubbock. There is a possibility of an attempt to destroy the Ferguson victory and to throw Sterling into the discard by going outside of the contesting factions for a convention nominee. Only a possibility perhaps but one guess is as good as another looking at the tangle on the eve of the meeting. Whatever the result hot times are sure to come in Texas this fall. One thing seems certain and that is Ferguson delegates will gather in the Panhandle to fight it out for the principle of majority rule.

The depression has hit the public treasury as well as the chest of the individual. It is unfortunate for Cameron and Milam county that appropriation cannot be made for the right of way needs on Highway No. 44. The proposed purchase was urged but rejected by the court on the good grounds of insufficient funds. Isolation comes to any town without good roads and the traveling public think little or nothing about hard times when the machine is turned down the road which is just a way of saying the best road gets the traffic. Unfortunate but perhaps the part of wisdom in these dark days of depression.

Lopping off of ex-officio salaries in county offices may effect savings to the tax payers in the wrong way. We must not forget that the small pay received in some of the offices through ex-officio salaries is about all the office holder is permitted to earn. Depressions have a way of killing incomes from fees. Should a competent public official work without pay? It may not be economy at all and certainly appears unjust in some cases, though nothing must be taken here as criticism of any attempt to restrict public expenditures.

Flowers for the living is a good platform plank in this enterprise we call communty. Stanley Swift of the Milam Theatre is giving patrons of the show as good pictures as can be seen in the larger Texas cities and at about half the cost. As an amusement center the movie has no equal in American life. To say that Cameron has good talkies is but to emphasize universal and common opinion. Mr. Swift is making a thoroughly justified small increase in the price of admission to his theatre. No increase is asked for the kids. And while we are boosting this good community enterprise take our advice and see "Bring 'Em Back Alive," Sunday and Monday, September 11 and 12. Frank Buck's great jungle film will thrill you more than anything since "Africa Speaks" and critics say it is better.

Miss Mittie Lou Howard has returned from Waco where she was in the house party of the wedding for Miss Levine Collins to Boyd Morrow, which took place last week.

BUDGET FOR COUNTY IS ADOPTED BY COURT FOR COMING FISCAL YEAR

The budget involving stated expenditures for the coming fiscal year was adopted by the Commissioners Court in session here on Wednesday. The budget as adopted will be substantially as filed by Judge Kemp in accordance with the law.

A detailed statement will be made for the succeeding issues by Giles L. Avriett, county auditor whose knowledge of the fiscal affairs of the county will enable to tax payers to secure full and complete information concerning the financial needs of the county for the coming year.

Savings have been made to the tax payers in the budget, all of which will be fully detailed.

A representative gathering of tax payers met with the Court for the public hearing Wednesday. Exceptions were filed by the tax payers on a few items in the budget. The court has agreed to make cuts in the salary of the county judge, the county treasurer and the court stenographer. When these items have been readjusted the total will be available in the statement to be made by Mr. Avriett.

An item of $5000 sought for right of way on the Waco road was not placed on the budget due to the uncertainty of revenue sufficient to take care of this expenditure.

Both in valuation of property and in actual reductions in expenditures will mean a large saving to the tax payers.

KREISMAN OPENS NEW STORE WITH BARGAIN SALE THIS WEEK

Kreisman's Store in Cameron celebrates the occupancy of their new location this week with a sale offering new fall and winter merchandise at prices that are lower than have been granted in many years.

In this issue will be found a double page advertisement from which thousands of circulars have been issued at The Herald plant. This ad will tell in part of the hundreds of bargains being offered by Mr. Kreisman in celebrating the opening of his new store in Cameron.

The store is now located in the Gohmert building formerly occupied by the J. D. Dobbins dry goods store. New merchandise has been placed for the sale and the opening of the fall buying season.

Mr. Kreisman has recently returned from New York where he purchased goods for the sale and fall buying.

A number of sales people have been added to the force to take care of buyers during the sale which starts at 9 a. m., Friday, September 9.

Mr. Kriesman says the sale is the greatest opportunity for savings he has ever held in his experience as a merchandiser and the buying ublic is urged to visit his store.

Mr. Kreisman practices the principle of home town buying in the purchase of his supplies in Cameron for the big sale.

Safeway Store Opens With Big Reception For Food Buyers

Safeway Stores in Cameron opened on last Friday with a big reception from food buyers. The store continued with a big sale until Monday, the weather on Saturday being a bit unfavorable, although large crowds visited the store.

Mr. Williams, manager of the store said he was well pleased with the results and every day the business has been satisfactory.

Safeway Stores believe in newspaper advertising, having proven the value of appealing to home buyers of food through the family newspaper.

Prices are quoted again this week on foods at the store.

Hero of Jungle Film at Milam Texas Boy; He 'Brought 'Em Back Alive'

A small boy, armed only with a forked stick, went out after school one day about thirty years ago, and searched for rattlesnakes in the mesquite country near San Angelo, Texas.

Less than one year ago a famous grown man, in pith helmet and shorts a revolver in his holster, and carrying a looped stick, captured a thirty foot python in the Sumatran jungle.

And between those paragraphs lies the history of Frank Buck, who led the Van Beuren-Buck Expedition which resulted in "Bring 'Em Back Alive," which comes to the Milam Theatre on Sunday and Monday, September 11 and 12. The boy of the rattlesnake was Frank Buck, who captured the python. It is from such beginnings that most of the true big game collectors get their start.

When Frank Buck was a boy in West Texas his horrified mother came upon him one day in a corner of the corral. The boy had caught a copperhead, which is no less deadly than the rattler. His idea then was to give a show which would include a couple of copperheads, a cayote, a Gila monster, and whatever other animals were available.

Mrs. Buck regardless to say, indefinitely postponed her ambitious offspring's debut in the wild animal business. But when the boy grew older and was somewhat more on his own, he heard about a man in Rochester, N. Y., who actually paid 50c apiece for every rattler delivered alive to his laboratory where he manufactured snake oil for rheumatism, and also did a thriivng business in supplying medicine shows with live reptiles. To a small boy in West Texas it seemed incredible that anyone would pay a cartwheel, or silver dollar, for two measly rattlers. So he determined not to miss his chance. Following up this lead, the boy snake-catcher made good sums of money for the dexterity which he soon acquired. He never was bitten, although a childhood friend, engaged in the same occupation, was killed by one of the snakes.

Four cases against J. C. Tucker, former cashier and vice president of the Cameron State Bank, charged by indictment with embezzlement and false entry in 17 counts, have been set down for trial on Monday, October 10 in District Court here.

Judge E. M. Dodson of Marlin serving in the cases called the docket Monday morning and four cases were set. Former District Attorney Dick Holt of Waco, W. A. Morrison Sr., Roy Baskin and W. A. Morrison Jr,, appeared for the defendant.

Jack Lewis, district attorney, will represent the state in the trial of these cases.

Thirteen other cases remain to be disposed of.

The Cameron State Bank closed its doors on December 17, 1931 and indictments were returned against Mr. Tucker at the May term of the grand jury in 1932. It was alleged that a shortage of funds in the bank amounting to approximately $35,000. The total amount involved in the Tucker indictments is about $17,000.

COTTON LOSES $5 A BALE ON GOVERNMENT REPORT

Cotton prices broke $5 a bale on the government forecast of 11,500,000 bales for the American crop this morning. The market reacted and gained some of the loss back before noon.

The estimate was 200,000 bales higher than the August estimate. Cotton was selling above 9c when the report came in.

Indications are that the next report will be lower. Crop conditions have been unfavorable and floods have taken a heavy toll in the Texas patches. It is estimated that Milam county will get only about 40,000 bales but the increased price will offset the short crop.

Former Milam Editor Visits In Cameron

Fred M. Herndon of San Antonio, former editor of the Thorndale Champin and well known Texas newspaper man was in Cameron last week on his way home. He had visited Lee Herndon and family of Lott and saw his granddaughter, Sarah Lee, five months old.

Mr. Herndon has been syndicating a column "By The Way" for some time in Texas and is now handling publicity for the Texas World Fair Commission.

On his way back he stopped in Rockdale to see Editor Cooke of The Reporter and in Thorndale to see V. F. Norris of The Champion.

Pop Bottles Filled In Saturday's Rain

Believe it or not, during the downpour of rain last Saturday afternoon a case of empty soda water bottles were filled with water caught from the rain as it fell. This happened at the home of Mrs. Wm. Jeter in Cameron. The necks of the soda water bottles are of the prevailing size and shows how much of the rain fell.

COMPLETE RETURNS IN STATE GIVE FERGUSON 3870 VOTE MAJORITY

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson's majority over Gov. Ross S. Sterling is 3870, according to complete official returns from all 254 counties reported to the Texas Election Bureau by its correspondents. The totals are: Ferguson 477,844; Sterling 473,974. Total vote 951,818.

Of the last thirteen counties to report official returns, only San Patricio reported substantial changes from unofficial returns.

Mrs. Ferguson gained six in Loving, one in Hutchinson, 154 in San Patricio and one in Stonewall, lost two in Blanco and 15 in Comanche, making a net addition of 145 to her total.

Sterling gained 24 in Comanche and 10 in San Patricio, and lost one in Dallam, making a net addition of 33 to his total. As a result of the changes in the seven counties, Mrs. Ferguson's lead was increased 112.

EDUCATION BOARD ASKS PAYMENT OF FUNDS IN CAMERON STATE BANK

The County Board of Education in session Monday instructed a request to the Commissioner's Court that funds held in trust by the Cameron State Bank belonging to the common school money of the county be paid over to the board for use in running the schools.

The motion also asks the County Attorney to represent the board and the county in the matter of obtaining these funds.

An agreement in writing from the Banking Commissioner to the Commissioner's Court to pay the county all funds on deposit in the bank when it failed, has not been complied with according to W. A. Morrison, president of the board.

It is understood that a suit filed by depositors seeking to restrain the Banking Commissioner from paying these funds without sharing loss along with depositors, is responsible for the delay in keeping the agreement. This suit filed at Austin on request of the Banking Commission, will now be filed in District Court in Cameron, it was said by attorneys in charge of the litigation against the Commission.

The suit sought to restrain the Commission from paying public funds in full without sharing along with the depositors the losses estimated to occur in the final liquidation of the bank. The suit also seeks to compel the Commission to bring suit against the Buckholts State Bank, the Burlington State Bank and other depositors to compel funds to be replaced in the bank withdrawn shortly before its closing on December 17, 1931.

The county assessment for scholastics was placed at $15.80 which is 20c less than the state apportionment of $16. The difference goes to the administration of the office of the County Superintendent.

Anniversary Sale At Green Bros. Continues

C. N. Green & Brothers continue their anniversary sale in Cameron this week. In this issue will be found a large number of quotations for the week at the store. C. N. Green says the sale is progressing well and many old friends are coming in for the event.

The store has been in business here for 33 years and special bargains are being given for the celebration sale.

A wide range of goods are enumerated in the ad and prices are lower than they have been known for many years.

"We have a large stock of both groceries and furniture," said Mr. Green "and we are making very low prices during this sale."

HIGH SCHOOL TAXED TO CAPACITY WHEN NEW TERM OPENS

Whatever havoc floods and depression may have wrought in other enterprizes they have had no effect on the Cameron Public Schools at least in so far as attendance is concerned.

According to figures given out by school authorities enrollment in both the elementary grades and in high school has far surpassed the enrollment of previous years. Up to noon hour on Wednesday enrollment in the high school had passed the 400 mark against a enrollment of 360 for the same date last year. Enrollment by grades is as follows: Freshmen 79, Sophomores 99, Juniors 100 and Seniors 114, Post Graduates 20.

This number taxes the high school to capacity and increases the teacher's load considerably as compared with any previous year.

Miss Irma Porter, principal of the Ada Henderson School, reports enrollment as follows: First 75, Second 76, Third 72, Fourth 64, Fifth 62, Sixth 73 and Seventh 86, making a total of 508. At this same date last year the enrollment from the first to seventh grades inclusive was 457 showing an increase of 51 in grades one to seven inclusive.

The first general faculty meeting held on Monday afternoon was a most enthusiastic one and all teachers are entering the new ear with fine spirit in spite of the fact that vouchers for the last three months of 1931-32 remain unaid.

Supt. T. A. Fisher outlined the work and policies for the coming year and urged the importance of maintaining the standards of the Cameron Schools in spite of the discouraging financial outlook.

MILAM DELEGATION WILL GO TO CONVENTION AT LUBBOCK NEXT WEEK

The Milam county delegates to the State Democratic Convention to be held in Lubbock will leave the county Sunday for the meeting in the west.

The Santa Fe railroad has announc- a round trip fare for $8.70 and in addition will allot a car to Milam county delegates who may use it as a sleeping quarter in Lubbock during the convention and the total cost to each delegate will be only about $17.

It was estimated that approximately 30 delegates would go from Milam county. The county has 12 votes in the convention and 24 delegates.

THE DREAMER DOES NOT FAIL

There are hills too steep for our feet
to climb,
There are goals too far to gain,
And in every breast there's a glorious
best
The dreamer may never attain.

For the Poet dies with song unsung,
And the Artist at last grows faint,
And he sinks to sleep and the grave
must keep
The pictures he has planned to paint.

Oh, never do we reach our fullest
heights,
And never do we do our all;
We must turn away at the close of
day,
When the tools from our fingers
fall.

But it's not failure to hold a dream
That never on earth comes true,
For the tasks of worth that we miss
on earth
Are left for our souls to do.

PROHIBITION LEADER OF METHODIST CHURCH TO VOTE FOR SCIALIST

Cincinnati, Sept. 5—A denunciation of President Hoover by Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the Methodist Episcopal Church's board of temperance, prohibition and morals, created a furore today at the church's Ohio conference in session here.

Dr. Wilson told the conference last night that "the President deserted the dry forces the first day he was elected," and said, "I am voting for Norman Thomas for President."

The militant churchman today stood firmly behind his speech. "I'll stand by everything I said," he declared.

Conference leaders expressed determination to carry to the conference floor the issue of his criticism of the President. There were executive sessions, supposedly to determine the course to follow. But Dr. Wilson remained unshaken.

Some of the leaders said his speech was "purely political" and as such had no place before the conference.

The militant churchman asserted in his speech that "prohibition has never had half a chance;" charged that the President "has consistently appointed 'wets' to prominent offices in the administration of the Volstead Act," and concluded that "the ideas of November will determine whether the cause of prohibition is to be crucified between two thieves." He did not explain his choice of words.

Dr. Wilson's statements brought a storm of protest.

'Facts, facts, give us the facts," there was a cry from the audience at one point of the address.

Dr. Wilson paused a moment.

"I am giving you the facts, brethren," he said, and went on.

"He (the President)," he said, "has consistently appointed 'wets to prominent offices in the administration of the Volstead Act. He appointed a 'wet' cabinet, with one exception. He appointed the infamous Wickersham Commission of nine 'wets' and two 'drys' with one of the 'wets' the president of the 'smokiest' and 'wettest' woman's college in the United States. When a man pits his political prejudices against such facts as these, his feeling is not to vote for the man."

He himself, he said, is going to vote for Norman Thomas, candidate of the Socialist party, adding, "I am not here to tell you who to vote for. However, if Thmas gets 1,500,000 dry votes this fall, it is going to stop the Republican party. There will then be no more straddling of the issue and they will drop that part of their platform concerning prohibition like a hot cake.

"In this way only can we rebuke the betrayal of our cause. We can put up and elect candidates to the Senate, Congress and the State Legislatures and make it plain that the conventions bind only the candidates for President and Vice President."

J. L. GARDENHIRE

The funeral of J. L. Gardennire who suddenly fell dead Friday afternoon, September 2 at six o'clock on the Fuller place near Wokaty, was held Wednesday morning. Judge O C. Nolte of Ben Arnold held the inquest and gave cause of death from natural causes.

The remains were held from Friday evening until Wednesday morning by Green Brothers and were laid to rest in the Strangers Field on the County Farm.

PICTURE AUDIENCES LIKE WILD ANIMALS; BIG THRILL COMING

The fascination which wild animals in their native habitát hold for picture audiences never has been more clearly demonstrated than it is being demonstrated by Frank Buck's "Bring 'Em Back Alive," which will be shown at the Milam Theatre on Sunday and Monday, September 11 and 12. If other audiences may be taken as typical, " Bring 'Em Back Alive" has an appeal unlike that of any conventional film production—whether it be comedy, or society, gangster or fictional drama.

Adventure, strife and comedy run through this astonishing wild animal picture in which everything is real, unstaged and unrehearsed. Fact once more proves more astonishing than fiction—and there can be no doubt that "Bring 'Eb Back Alive" is fact. Anyone who witnesses the death struggles between the crocodile and black leopard, the python and the man eating Bengal tiger; anyone who sees the shots of the elephant herd and the pathetic plight of the lost baby elephant; anyone, indeed, who sees any art of "Bring 'Em Back Alive" knows that the picture which the Van Beuren Corporation has produced is the real thing.

It is impossible to convey in mere words the thrills of "Bring 'Em Back Alive." It is known that several of the sequences in this RKO-Radio picture were the result of weeks of patient waiting and they have demonstrated themselves to be well worth waiting for.

"Bring 'Em Back Alive" has such a diversity of convincing jungle episodes that it will be of interest not only for its sure-fire entertainment value but also for its educational worth. It is a practical lesson in natural history for young and old. It shows also the strange peoples of distant lands—the pictures were made in the Federated Malay States. Everyone will thrill to the unprecedented action shots, and learn a thing or two about the real jungle. "Bring 'Em Back Alive' is rated as ace-high entertainment and that rarity of rarities—something really new.

I'm called "The Song — with-out A Name," — Where I be-long — I can't ex-plain.

Peter Von Steeden, of New York's 400 Leads Famous Orchestra

New York City.—The real New Yorker wants sweet, soft music. So says Peter Van Steeden, original New Yorker on Broadway.

Van Steeden is of Dutch ancestry and represents Father Knickerbocker in New York's night life, being musical director at Whyte's Restaurant, a famous old Wall Street eating house that has recently moved to upper Fifth Avenue.

"The desire for quiet music is a reaction from the noise and the hustle and bustle around us," says the leader. "Most other cities like brass. New York prefers its music muted. This preference for quiet, sweet music has probably been the salvation of our popular music. If it had persisted in its blatant, early state, it could never have kept its hold on the dancers of the universe.

"While its throb and tempo keeps abreast with the speed at which we are going, its tone does a lot to soothe the tired business man.

"The simpler the song, the better the New Yorker likes it. Small towners adore elaborate arrangements and tricky and intricate rhythms. But 'The Song Without a Name,' simplest popular song since 'Three O'Clock in the Morning,' is the ideal New Yorker song. This melody is easy, the words are simple and straight forward."

Van Steeden belongs to New York's famous four hundred but prefers a strenuous life as musical director, to society.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Troop 53, J. W. Haygood, Scoutmaster

Rainy weather prevented our hike last Friday night, however, we had a very nice meeting with a good attendance. Some plans were made for our fall and winter program.

A check up was made to find out just who had earned merit badges or advanced some rank in Scouting during the holidays. It was found that some Scouts have actually spent all summer and not earned a single merit badge. This is very poor Scouting.

Troop 32, B. L. Archer, Scoutmaster

The boys of Troop 32 were all disappointed Friday as they could not have the all night hike as planned, but an enjoable evening was sent inside anyway.

The tumbling mats were brought out and the champions in wrestling wrist wrestling, etc., were decided.

If the weather is permissable an all night hike will be staged next Friday.

Troop 52, J. A. Lindle, Scoutmaster

Troop 52 met last Friday night with 14 Scouts, the Scoutmaster and one committeeman present. The meeting was opened with Scout songs to which all the boys responded lustily. Scout G. W. Gjedde won the prize for the best version of a ghost story in a progressive story for the entire troop. Scout Willie Morsw gave an interesting talk on his hobby "radio" explaining the function of the tubes and other parts of a set. The Fox patrol was winner in a snappy game of "Steal the Bacon." The meeting was closed by repeating the Scout oath and law.

METHODIST CHURCH

The pastor has returned from his vacation and will preach next Sunday at 11 a. m. Rev. Connerly, who filled the pastor's place during his absence will remain with the Cameron church until the meeting of the Annual Conference, early in November, in the capacity of a Junior preacher. He will conduct the services next Sunday night; at that service the junior choir, under the direction of Miss Jessie Guffey will be in charge of the music. The senior choir with Mrs. A. J. Triggs as director, are re-organizing their work; they will be in charge of the music at the morning hour.

Many people have not attended church services during the summer months; let every one begin now to get back to regular attendance. To those who are indifferent to the matter of church attendance we commend these words of Edgar Guest, the well known writer, who is not a minister: "I go to church because I want my children to go to church. I want them to know something more of life than business, sport and selfish amusement. I know only one institution that will teach them that they are divine. The church will interfere with their pleasures at times, but their mother and I sometimes have to do that, and we hope that they will love us none the less because of it. The church will mystify and puzzle them and seem irksome to them now and then; but all things worth while demand something of us in sacrifice. I believe that the church and the things it stands for are necessary to our well-being."

C. A. LEHMBERG, Pastor.

WEEKLY COTTON LETTER

Supply

Although the weather has now improved, there has recently been entirely too much rain over the cotton belt. In Texas and some of the Central States the late rains damaged and lowered the grades of the open cotton and further promoted the increase of the boll weevils. The weevils are now inflicting serious damage in Southwest, Central and Eastern Texas, Central and Eastern Oklahoma, and the major portion of Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina.

About the only section of the belt where cotton is reported to be holding its own are West and Northwest Texas, West Oklahoma and parts of North Carolina.

In many sections of the Central and Eastern States a significant feature of the crop is the smallness of the bolls and this is attributed to the sharp reduction in the use of fertilizers.

Demand

In the short time of thirty days the prospect of cotton consumption in the United States has changed from about the poorest on record, to one of the best in several years. During the past season the United States made the worst showing of any of the large cotton consuming countries, but this season the writer expects our own country to be one of the bright spots in the world's consumption of cotton. Europe is expected to take more American cotton this season than last, but China and Japan should take less on account of their heavy buying of American cotton the past season, and because the new crop in China is substantially larger this season.

Political

It has been announced from Washington that the Reconstruction Corporation would lend fifty million dollars to the Farm Board and the Cooperative Associations for the purpose of holding their cotton off the market at the present time. Under present conditions this is a constructive move, as everything possible should be done to bring back farm products to a reasonable level.

Market

The market has enjoyed a large advance and is waiting on the next Government crop estimate to be issued today.

If the last report of 11,306,000 was correct, the estimate today should be smaller, as the crop has, no doubt, deteriorated since. While caution is suggested at these levels, general business conditions are improving and any substantial decline should meet with good buying from the mills.

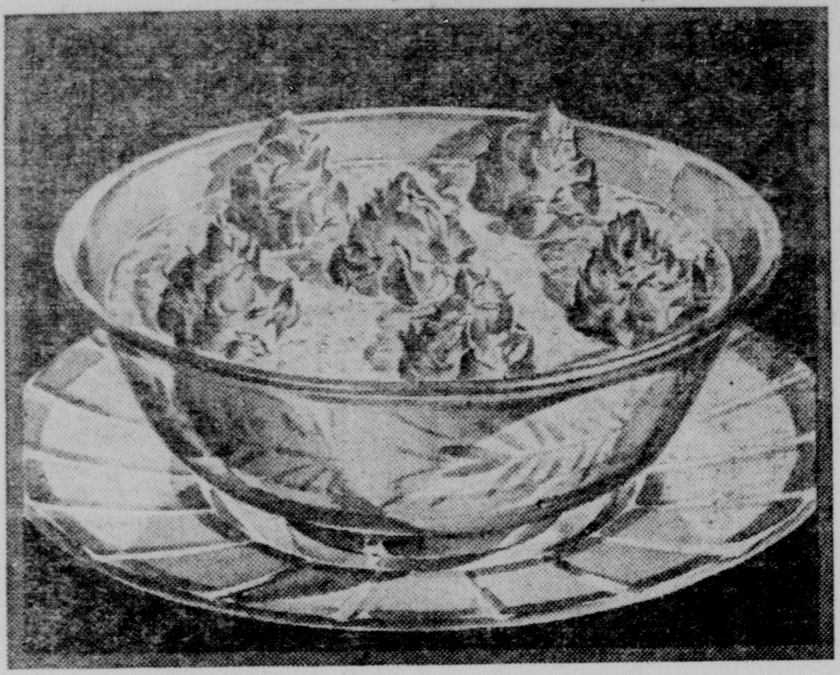
es from the code, "Bring 'Em Back Alive," which in later years he adopted formally. Tom Green County, Texas, offered a bounty of $2.50 for every coyote scalp delivered at the courthouse. So young Buck invented a scheme. Whenever butchering time was near, Frank would take the carcass of a calf and slip a rope around it. Then he would tie the rope to the pommel of his sddle and drag the carcass around to a spot he had chosen. The coyotes would get the scent and follow it to a ditch Frank had dug. It was then a case of good shooting and bringing the scalp to the courthouse.

He left Texas and went to Chicago where he worked as a bank clerk, always maintaining some contact with animals; and always following his self-planned study of natural history. He did not attend college, but thru his own efforts he acquired considerable scientific knowledge of animals, their habits, anatomy and peculiarities. In those days he acquired a great deal of information on some specimens which appear in "Bring 'Em Back Alive," the RKO-Radio picture—the giant monitor lizard and the honeybear, to name two—but which Mr. Buck did not actually see until years later.

He scrimped and saved enough money to finance a personal trip to South America and with his knowledge of ornithology and several lucky "breaks," he was able to cover the expenses of his trip and show a small profit. Obtaining financial backing, he began his career in earnest. In two years he made another trip to South America and his first to Africa. Since then not a year passed which did not find him, some of the time, in a part of the uncivilized world, "bringing 'em back alive." He could not resist adding a few live specimens when he went on the Van Beuren-Buck Expedition, which was planned as a purely motion picture assignment, directed by Clyde E. Elliott.

A. F. Mitchell of Corsicana, former resident here and now county engineer for that county was in Cameron Tuesday on business.

Winter Dried Fruits and Tapioca Aid Housewives in Menu Making



MAKING a resolution to budget the household allowance more carefully and yet to give the family nourishing and tasty meals, wives and mothers are on the look out for new recipes. For high days and holidays come and go but the task of providing three meals daily goes on all year.

The winter dried fruits—figs, raisins, apricots, dates and prunes—can be made into a wealth of delicious desserts at small cost. They are Nature's own sweets packed with sugar for winter energy and should appear on the table often during the cold weather.

Here is a colorful Apricot Tapioca that tactful wives will serve after the Monday pot-luck meal. Even Junior will be willing to eat his carrots if he is rewarded by such a dessert.

APRICOT TAPIOCA

¾ pound dried apricots
3 cups water
½ cup sugar
3 tablespoons quick cooking Tapioca
⅛ teaspoon salt

Wash apricots. Soak in 3 cups water 1 hour and cook until tender. Drain. To juice, add enough water to make 2 cups liquid. Add Tapioca and salt, and cook in double boiler 15 minutes, or until tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Add sugar. Cool. Force apricots through sieve. Fold pulp (about 1 cup) into tapioca mixture. Chill and serve with whipped cream. Serves 6.

FROM NORWAY

The lowly boarding house prune has come into its own, magically transformed by modern cook-craft into a variety of delicious desserts. Here is one of them. And it is so simple to make that you can put it on your list of last minute desserts for busy days.

NORWEGIAN PRUNE TAPIOCA

4 tablespoons quick cooking Tapioca
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon, or 1-inch stick cinnamon
2 cups unsweetened prune juice, or juice and water
4 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 cup cooked prunes, seeded and finely cut

Add Tapioca, salt, and cinnamon to prune juice, and cook in double boiler 15 minutes, or until tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Remove cinnamon (if stick is used), add sugar, lemon juice, and prunes. Chill. Serve with cream. Serves 6.

PICTURE AUDIENCES LIKE WILD ANIMALS; BIG THRILL COMING

The fascination which wild animals in their native habitat hold for picture audiences never has been more clearly demonstrated than it is being demonstrated by Frank Buck's "Bring 'Em Back Alive," which will be shown at the Milam Theatre on Sunday and Monday, September 11 and 12. If other audiences may be taken as typical, " Bring 'Em Back Alive" has an appeal unlike that of any conventional film production—whether it be comedy, or society, gangster or fictional drama.

Adventure, strife and comedy run through this astonishing wild animal picture in which everything is real, unstaged and unrehearsed. Fact once more proves more astonishing than fiction—and there can be no doubt that "Bring 'Eb Back Alive" is fact. Anyone who witnesses the death struggles between the crocodile and black leopard, the python and the man eating Bengal tiger; anyone who sees the shots of the elephant herd and the pathetic plight of the lost baby elephant; anyone, indeed, who sees any art of "Bring 'Em Back Alive" knows that the picture which the Van Beuren Corporation has produced is the real thing.

It is impossible to convey in mere words the thrills of "Bring 'Em Back Alive." It is known that several of the sequences in this RKO-Radio picture were the result of weeks of patient waiting and they have demonstrated themselves to be well worth waiting for.

"Bring 'Em Back Alive" has such a diversity of convincing jungle episodes that it will be of interest not only for its sure-fire entertainment value but also for its educational worth. It is a practical lesson in natural history for young and old. It shows also the strange peoples of distant lands—the pictures were made in the Federated Malay States. Everyone will thrill to the unprecedented action shots, and learn a thing or two about the real jungle. "Bring 'Em Back Alive" is rated as ace-high entertainment and that rarity of rarities—something really new.

PROHIBITION LEADER OF METHODIST CHURCH TO VOTE FOR SCIALIST

Cincinnati, Sept. 5—A denunciation of President Hoover by Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the Methodist Episcopal Church's board of temperance, prohibition and morals, created a furore today at the church's Ohio conference in session here.

Dr. Wilson told the conference last night that "the President deserted the dry forces the first day he was elected," and said, "I am voting for Norman Thomas for President."

The militant churchman today stood firmly behind his speech. "I'll stand by everything I said," he declared.

Conference leaders expressed determination to carry to the conference floor the issue of his criticism of the President. There were executive sessions, supposedly to determine the course to follow. But Dr. Wilson remained unshaken.

Some of the leaders said his speech was "purely political" and as such had no place before the conference.

The militant churchman asserted in his speech that "prohibition has never had half a chance;" charged that the President "has consistently appointed 'wets' to prominent offices in the administration of the Volstead Act," and concluded that "the ideas of November will determine whether the cause of prohibition is to be crucified between two thieves." He did not explain his choice of words.

Dr. Wilson's statements brought a storm of protest.

"Facts, facts, give us the facts," there was a cry from the audience at one point of the address.

Dr. Wilson paused a moment.

"I am giving you the facts, brethren," he said, and went on.

"He (the President)," he said, "has consistently appointed 'wets to prominent offices in the administration of the Volstead Act. He appointed a 'wet' cabinet, with one exception. He appointed the infamous Wickersham Commission of nine 'wets' and two 'drys' with one of the 'wets' the president of the 'smokiest' and 'wettest' woman's college in the United States. When a man pits his political prejudices against such facts as these, his feeling is not to vote for the man."

He himself, he said, is going to vote for Norman Thomas, candidate of the Socialist party, adding, "I am not here to tell you who to vote for. However, if Thmas gets 1,500,000 dry votes this fall, it is going to stop the Republican party. There will then be no more straddling of the issue and they will drop that part of their platform concerning prohibition like a hot cake.

"In this way only can we rebuke the betrayal of our cause. We can put up and elect candidates to the Senate, Congress and the State Legislatures and make it plain that the conventions bind only the candidates for President and Vice President."

Helped By Cardui

Here's the true story of how Cardui helped Mrs. H. E. Dunaway, of McComb, Miss., as written by herself:

"I was sick and rather discouraged. I was so weak and thin, I was not able to do my work as it should be done. This made me fret a good deal, and did not help my condition.

"I had pains across my back and lower part of my body. My nights were spent in rolling from one side of the bed to the other, hoping I would soon go to sleep. Then when morning would come, I would be just as tired as when I went to bed. A neighbor, seeing how badly I felt, told me to try Cardui. After I had taken one bottle, I was much better. I kept on taking Cardui, and I was stronger and slept much better at night."

Idaho Spuds Selling For Two Bits A Sack, And 20 Pounds Beans Free

Ranchers in Idaho evidently will not have to pay a heavy income tax this ear.

E. T. Ratliff of the Palo Verde Creamery ranch, who has just returned from a vacation spent near Twin Falls, bought 25c worth of potatoes one day. Imagine his surprise when he was given a 130 pound sack of fine Idaho russetts for a quarter.

Before leaving for Blythe, Mr. Ratliff decided to go to the market and buy some of those fine Idaho pink beans to bring home. He asked for 25c worth's, and the clerk said "where is our car? You can't carry a quarter's worth."

"Alright, let me have about 20 pounds," he replied. When the twenty pounds were weighed out the clerk refused to make any charge, saying that the amount was too insignificant.

Gasoline was selling for 39c a gallon. Fuel in that part of the country was scarce and farmers had to pay 25c for a half sack of coal with which to cook their cheap beans and potatoes. Mr. Ratliff says he is glad to be back where farmers can get at least enough to rattle for their crops.—Palo Verde News, California.

Man Eating Tiger Is Public Enemy No. 1 In Jungle Life

The man-eating tiger has the doubtful distinction of being Public Enemy Number One in the jungle, according to Frank Buck, whose "Bring 'Em Back Alive," RKO-Radio Picture, comes to the Milam Theatre next Sunday and Monday. The tiger is truly a gangster, according to Mr. Buck. Like the human outlaw he is never the same after drawing human blood; he resents any other animal's "muscling in" on his territory; and he shares the same craftiness and savagery.

DIZZINESS

relieved by Black-Draught

"I decided to take Thedford's Black-Draught, as I had been having bilious spells," writes Mr. Charles E. Stevens, of Columbus, Ind. "When I get bilious, I feel sleepy and tired and do not feel like doing my work. It is hard to tell how I feel, but I do not feel good. I get awfully dizzy. I know then that I had better take something. After I found how good Black-Draught is, that is what I have used. I guess it rids me of the bile, for I feel better—don't feel like I am dropping off to sleep every time I sit down. That, to me, is a very bad feeling."

Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for CHILDREN.

RAINFALL HARMFUL TO COTTON CROP IN MILAM COUNTY

More than nine inches of rain fell in Cameron Saturday night and Sunday with resulting heavy damage to open cotton and flooding of low lands in creek and river bottoms over the trade territory.

Correspondingly heavy rains were reported to have fallen on the water shed of the San Gabriel river and tributaries and Little River was at flood stage in the early morning hours of Sunday and by day break the swollen stream had begun to empty its waters into the farm areas of the bottoms. Fear was expressed for a time that the flood of 1921 might be duplicated but the waters receded. The river began rising again Monday but by Tuesday morning had slowly retreated to its channel.

Elm Creek was at flood stage on Sunday morning overflowing the bottoms with heavy damage to cotton.

Traffic was interrupted on various highways but the route South and East was open and hundreds of autos and trucks passed through Cameron an over the bridged highway through the bottom.

Rain continued to fall as late as Tuesday night.

It was estimated that between four and five thousand bales of cotton were lost with a total value of approximately $200,000.

Damage to staple will be considerable but the rains will produce more cotton and perhaps overcome the loss sustained.

S. D. Rudder and family who have been living near Cameron have moved to town for the school year.

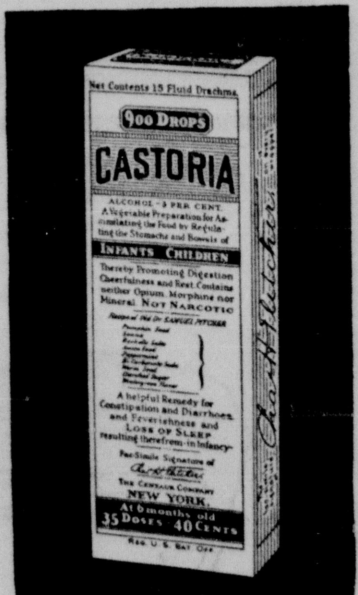
Made specially for BABIES and CHILDREN

Physicians tell us that one condition is nearly always present when a child has a digestive upset, a starting cold or other little ailment. Constipation.

When little bowels get clogged, body wastes accumulate, and poisons and infection find a fertile breeding place.

The first step towards relief is to rid the body of impure wastes. And for this nothing is better than genuine time-proven Castoria!

Castoria is a pure vegetable preparation made specially for babies and children. This means it is mild and gentle enough for their delicate organs. Yet it is always effective.



And of course it contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics.

Genuine Castoria always bears the name, Chas. H. Fletcher. It now comes in two sizes. The new family size contains about 2½ times the amount in the regular size.

COSTS OF COUNTY GOVERNMENT FIXED HERE

OUR TOWN

"I do not prize the word 'cheap.' It is not a word of hope. It is not a word of cheer. It is not a word of inspiration. It is the badge of poverty. It is the signal of distress. Cheap merchandise makes cheap men. Cheap men make a cheap country." That was written by William McKinley in 1890 and it is worth more than just casual consideration, don't you think?

Capitulation of the big newspapers before the Texas ballot box and the results obtained when the folks got through voting in the last Primary and nominated 'Ma' is in a sense heartening. After advising what might be done with 'thin majorities' at a convention the Dallas News now says 'right is right' and the sensible thing is to declare Mrs. Ferguson the nominee at Lubbock. Nearly a half million Texans said the same thing in a better attempt to institute good government in Texas. A majority of 3870 is as good as a million so far as the plain duty of the convention goes.

Political history may be made at Lubbock. There is a possibility of an attempt to destroy the Ferguson victory and to throw Sterling into the discard by going outside of the contesting factions for a convention nominee. Only a possibility perhaps but one guess is as good as another looking at the tangle on the eve of the meeting. Whatever the result hot times are sure to come in Texas this fall. One thing seems certain and that is Ferguson delegates will gather in the Panhandle to fight it out for the principle of majority rule.

The depression has hit the public treasury as well as the chest of the individual. It is unfortunate for Cameron and Milam county that appropriation cannot be made for the right of way needs on Highway No. 44. The proposed purchase was urged but rejected by the court on the good grounds of insufficient funds. Isolation comes to any town without good roads and the traveling public think little or nothing about hard times when the machine is turned down the road which is just a way of saying the best road gets the traffic. Unfortunate but perhaps the part of wisdom in these dark days of depression.

Lopping off of ex-officio salaries in county offices may effect savings to the tax payers in the wrong way. We must not forget that the small pay received in some of the offices through ex-officio salaries is about all the office holder is permitted to earn. Depressions have a way of killing incomes from fees. Should a competent public official work without pay? It may not be economy at all and certainly appears unjust in some cases, though nothing must be taken here as criticism of any attempt to restrict public expenditures.

Flowers for the living is a good platform plank in this enterprise we call community. Stanley Swift of the Milam Theatre is giving patrons of the show as good pictures as can be seen in the larger Texas cities and at about half the cost. As an amusement center the movie has no equal in American life. To say that Cameron has good talkies is but to emphasize universal and common opinion. Mr. Swift is making a thoroughly justified small increase in the price of admission to his theatre. No increase is asked for the kids. And while we are boosting this good community enterprise take our advice and see "Bring 'Em Back Alive," Sunday and Monday, September 11 and 12. Frank Buck's great jungle film will thrill you more than anything since "Africa Speaks" and critics say it is better.

Miss Mittie Lou Howard has returned from Waco where she was in the house party of the wedding for Miss Levine Collins to Boyd Morrow, which took place last week.

BUDGET FOR COUNTY IS ADOPTED BY COURT FOR COMING FISCAL YEAR

The budget involving stated expenditures for the coming fiscal year was adopted by the Commissioners Court in session here on Wednesday. The budget as adopted will be substantially as filed by Judge Kemp in accordance with the law.

A detailed statement will be made for the succeeding issues by Giles L. Avriett, county auditor whose knowledge of the fiscal affairs of the county will enable to tax payers to secure full and complete information concerning the financial needs of the county for the coming year.

Savings have been made to the tax payers in the budget, all of which will be fully detailed.

A representative gathering of tax payers met with the Court for the public hearing Wednesday. Exceptions were filed by the tax payers on a few items in the budget. The court has agreed to make cuts in the salary of the county judge, the county treasurer and the court stenographer. When these items have been readjusted the total will be available in the statement to be made by Mr. Avriett.

An item of $5000 sought for right of way on the Waco road was not placed on the budget due to the uncertainty of revenue sufficient to take care of this expenditure.

Both in valuation of property and in actual reductions in expenditures will mean a large saving to the tax payers.

KREISMAN OPENS NEW STORE WITH BARGAIN SALE THIS WEEK

Kreisman's Store in Cameron celebrates the occupancy of their new location this week with a sale offering new fall and winter merchandise at prices that are lower than have been granted in many years.

In this issue will be found a double page advertisement from which thousands of circulars have been issued at The Herald plant. This ad will tell in part of the hundreds of bargains being offered by Mr. Kreisman in celebrating the opening of his new store in Cameron.

The store is now located in the Gohmert building formerly occupied by the J. D. Dobbins dry goods store. New merchandise has been placed for the sale and the opening of the fall buying season.

Mr. Kreisman has recently returned from New York where he purchased goods for the sale and fall buying.

A number of sales people have been added to the force to take care of buyers during the sale which starts at 9 a. m., Friday, September 9.

Mr. Kriesman says the sale is the greatest opportunity for savings he has ever held in his experience as a merchandiser and the buying ublic is urged to visit his store.

Mr. Kreisman practices the principle of home town buying in the purchase of his supplies in Cameron for the big sale.

Safeway Store Opens With Big Reception For Food Buyers

Safeway Stores in Cameron opened on last Friday with a big reception from food buyers. The store continued with a big sale until Monday, the weather on Saturday being a bit unfavorable, although large crowds visited the store.

Mr. Williams, manager of the store said he was well pleased with the results and every day the business has been satisfactory.

Safeway Stores believe in newspaper advertising, having proven the value of appealing to home buyers of food through the family newspaper.

Prices are quoted again this week on foods at the store.

Hero of Jungle Film at Milam Texas Boy; He 'Brought 'Em Back Alive'

A small boy, armed only with a forked stick, went out after school one day about thirty years ago, and searched for rattlesnakes in the mesquite country near San Angelo, Texas.

Less than one year ago a famous grown man, in pith helmet and shorts a revolver in his holster, and carrying a looped stick, captured a thirty foot python in the Sumatran jungle.

And between those paragraphs lies the history of Frank Buck, who led the Van Beuren-Buck Expedition which resulted in "Bring 'Em Back Alive," which comes to the Milam Theatre on Sunday and Monday, September 11 and 12. The boy of the rattlesnake was Frank Buck, who captured the python. It is from such beginnings that most of the true big game collectors get their start.

When Frank Buck was a boy in West Texas his horrified mother came upon him one day in a corner of the corral. The boy had caught a copperhead, which is no less deadly than the rattler. His idea then was to give a show which would include a couple of copperheads, a cayote, a Gila monster, and whatever other animals were available.

Mrs. Buck regardless to say, indefinitely postponed her ambitious offspring's debut in the wild animal business. But when the boy grew older and was somewhat more on his own, he heard about a man in Rochester, N. Y., who actually paid 50c apiece for every rattler delivered alive to his laboratory where he manufactured snake oil for rheumatism, and also did a thriivng business in supplying medicine shows with live reptiles. To a small boy in West Texas it seemed incredible that anyone would pay a cartwheel, or silver dollar, for two measly rattlers. So he determined not to miss his chance. Following up this lead, the boy snake-catcher made good sums of money for the dexterity which he soon acquired. He never was bitten, although a childhood friend, engaged in the same occupation, was killed by one of the snakes.

FOUR CASES AGAINST J. C. TUCKERR ARE SET FOR OCTOBER 10TH

Four cases against J. C. Tucker, former cashier and vice president of the Cameron State Bank, charged by indictment with embezzlement and false entry in 17 counts, have been set down for trial on Monday, October 10 in District Court here.

Judge E. M. Dodson of Marlin serving in the cases called the docket Monday morning and four cases were set. Former District Attorney Dick Holt of Waco, W. A. Morrison Sr., Roy Baskin and W. A. Morrison Jr,, appeared for the defendant.

Jack Lewis, district attorney, will represent the state in the trial of these cases.

Cause No. 9175 the first of the indictments charging embezzlement has been set for trial. Other cases set are: 9176, drawing without authority with intent to defraud; 9184, embezzlement; 9191, false entry. The cases set embrace the entire scope of offenses under the indictments. Thirteen other cases remain to be disposed of.

The Cameron State Bank closed its doors on December 17, 1931 and indictments were returned against Mr. Tucker at the May term of the grand jury in 1932. It was alleged that a shortage of funds in the bank amounting to approximately $35,000. The total amount involved in the Tucker indictments is about $17,000.

St. Anthony School Opens September 5th

There will be an additional teacher in the school for the next term and also a music teacher and the administration looks forward to a most successful term.

COTTON LOSES $5 A BALE ON GOVERNMENT REPORT

Cotton prices broke $5 a bale on the government forecast of 11,500,000 bales for the American crop this morning. The market reacted and gained some of the loss back before noon.

The estimate was 200,000 bales higher than the August estimate. Cotton was selling above 9c when the report came in.

Indications are that the next report will be lower. Crop conditions have been unfavorable and floods have taken a heavy toll in the Texas patches. It is estimated that Milam county will get only about 40,000 bales but the increased price will offset the short crop.

Former Milam Editor Visits In Cameron

Fred M. Herndon of San Antonio, former editor of the Thorndale Champin and well known Texas newspaper man was in Cameron last week on his way home. He had visited Lea Herndon and family of Lott and saw his granddaughter, Sarah Lee, five months old.

Mr. Herndon has been syndicating a column "By The Way" for some time in Texas and is now handling publicity for the Texas World Fair Commission.

On his way back he stopped in Rockdale to see Editor Cooke of The Reporter and in Thorndale to see V. F. Norris of The Champion.

Pop Bottles Filled In Saturday's Rain

Believe it or not, during the downpour of rain last Saturday afternoon a case of empty soda water bottles were filled with water caught from the rain as it fell. This happened at the home of Mrs. Wm. Jeter in Cameron. The necks of the soda water bottles are of the prevailing size and shows how much of the rain fell.

COMPLETE RETURNS IN STATE GIVE FERGUSON 3870 VOTE MAJORITY

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson's majority over Gov. Ross S. Sterling is 3870, according to complete official returns from all 254 counties reported to the Texas Election Bureau by its correspondents. The totals are: Ferguson 477,844; Sterling 473,974. Total vote 951,818.

Of the last thirteen counties to report official returns, only San Patricio reported substantial changes from unofficial returns.

Mrs. Ferguson gained six in Loving, one in Hutchinson, 154 in San Patricio and one in Stonewall, lost two in Blanco and 15 in Comanche, making a net addition of 145 to her total.

Sterling gained 24 in Comanche and 10 in San Patricio, and lost one in Dallam, making a net addition of 33 to his total. As a result of the changes in the seven counties, Mrs. Ferguson's lead was increased 112.

EDUCATION BOARD ASKS PAYMENT OF FUNDS IN CAMERON STATE BANK

The County Board of Education in session Monday instructed a request to the Commissioner's Court that funds held in trust by the Cameron State Bank belonging to the common school money of the county be paid over to the board for use in running the schools.

The motion also asks the County Attorney to represent the board and the county in the matter of obtaining these funds.

An agreement in writing from the Banking Commissioner to the Commissioner's Court to pay the county all funds on deposit in the bank when it failed, has not been complied with according to W. A. Morrison, president of the board.

It is understood that a suit filed by depositors seeking to restrain the Banking Commissioner from paying these funds without sharing loss along with depositors, is responsible for the delay in keeping the agreement. This suit filed at Austin on request of the Banking Commission, will now be filed in District Court in Cameron, it was said by attorneys in charge of the litigation against the Commission.

The suit sought to restrain the Commission from paying public funds in full without sharing along with the depositors the losses estimated to occur in the final liquidation of the bank. The suit also seeks to compel the Commission to bring suit against the Buckholts State Bank, the Burlington State Bank and other depositors to compel funds to be replaced in the bank withdrawn shortly before its closing on December 17, 1931.

The county assessment for scholastics was placed at $15.80 which is 20c less than the state apportionment of $16. The difference goes to the administration of the office of the County Superintendent.

Anniversary Sale At Green Bros. Continues

C. N. Green & Brothers continue their anniversary sale in Cameron this week. In this issue will be found a large number of quotations for the week at the store. C. N. Green says the sale is progressing well and many old friends are coming in for the event.

The store has been in business here for 33 years and special bargains are being given for the celebration sale.

A wide range of goods are enumerated in the ad and prices are lower than they have been known for many years.

"We have a large stock of both groceries and furniture," said Mr. Green "and we are making very low prices during this sale."

HIGH SCHOOL TAXED TO CAPACITY WHEN NEW TERM OPENS

Whatever havoc floods and depression may have wrought in other enterprizes they have had no effect on the Cameron Public Schools at least in so far as attendance is concerned.

According to figures given out by school authorities enrollment in both the elementary grades and in high school has far surpassed the enrollment of previous years. Up to noon hour on Wednesday enrollment in the high school had passed the 400 mark against a enrollment of 360 for the same date last year. Enrollment by grades is as follows: Freshmen 79, Sophomores 99, Juniors 100 and Seniors 114, Post Graduates 20.

This number taxes the high school to capacity and increases the teacher's load considerably as compared with any previous year.

Miss Irma Porter, principal of the Ada Henderson School, reports enrollment as follows: First 75, Second 76, Third 72, Fourth 64, Fifth 62, Sixth 73 and Seventh 86, making a total of 508. At this same date last year the enrollment from the first to seventh grades inclusive was 457 showing an increase of 51 in grades one to seven inclusive.

The first general faculty meeting held on Monday afternoon was a most enthusiastic one and all teachers are entering the new ear with fine spirit in spite of the fact that vouchers for the last three months of 1931-32 remain unaid.

Supt. T. A. Fisher outlined the work and policies for the coming year and urged the importance of maintaining the standards of the Cameron Schools in spite of the discouraging financial outlook.

THE DREAMER DOES NOT FAIL

There are hills too steep for our feet
to climb,
There are goals too far to gain,
And in every breast there's a glorious
best
The dreamer may never attain.

For the Poet dies with song unsung,
And the Artist at last grows faint,
And he sinks to sleep and the grave
must keep
The pictures he has planned to paint.

Oh, never do we reach our fullest
heights,
And never do we do our all;
We must turn away at the close of
day,
When the tools from our fingers
fall.

But it's not failure to hold a dream
That never on earth comes true,
For the tasks of worth that we miss
on earth
Are left for our souls to do.

PROHIBITION LEADER OF METHODIST CHURCH TO VOTE FOR SCIALIST

Cincinnati, Sept. 5—A denunciation of President Hoover by Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the Methodist Episcopal Church's board of temperance, prohibition and morals, created a furore today at the church's Ohio conference in session here.

Dr. Wilson told the conference last night that "the President deserted the dry forces the first day he was elected," and said, "I am voting for Norman Thomas for President."

The militant churchman today stood firmly behind his speech. "I'll stand by everything I said," he declared.

Conference leaders expressed determination to carry to the conference floor the issue of his criticism of the President. There were executive sessions, supposedly to determine the course to follow. But Dr. Wilson remained unshaken.

Some of the leaders said his speech was "purely political" and as such had no place before the conference.

The militant churchman asserted in his speech that "prohibition has never had half a chance;" charged that the President "has consistently appointed 'wets' to prominent offices in the administration of the Volstead Act," and concluded that "the ideas of November will determine whether the cause of prohibition is to be crucified between two thieves." He did not explain his choice of words.

Dr. Wilson's statements brought a storm of protest.

'Facts, facts, give us the facts," there was a cry from the audience at one point of the address.

Dr. Wilson paused a moment.

"I am giving you the facts, brethren," he said, and went on.

"He (the President)," he said, "has consistently appointed 'wets to prominent offices in the administration of the Volstead Act. He appointed a 'wet' cabinet, with one exception. He appointed the infamous Wickersham Commission of nine 'wets' and two 'drys' with one of the 'wets' the president of the 'smokiest' and 'wettest' woman's college in the United States. When a man pits his political prejudices against such facts as these, his feeling is not to vote for the man."

He himself, he said, is going to vote for Norman Thomas, candidate of the Socialist party, adding, "I am not here to tell you who to vote for. However, if Thmas gets 1,500,000 dry votes this fall, it is going to stop the Republican party. There will then be no more straddling of the issue and they will drop that part of their platform concerning prohibition like a hot cake.

"In this way only can we rebuke the betrayal of our cause. We can put up and elect candidates to the Senate, Congress and the State Legislatures and make it plain that the conventions bind only the candidates for President and Vice President."

The fascination which wild animals in their native habitát hold for picture audiences never has been more clearly demonstrated than it is being demonstrated by Frank Buck's "Bring 'Em Back Alive," which will be shown at the Milam Theatre on Sunday and Monday, September 11 and 12. If other audiences may be taken as typical, " Bring 'Em Back Alive" has an appeal unlike that of any conventional film production—whether it be comedy, or society, gangster or fictional drama.

Adventure, strife and comedy run through this astonishing wild animal picture in which everything is real, unstaged and unrehearsed. Fact once more proves more astonishing than fiction—and there can be no doubt that "Bring 'Eb Back Alive" is fact. Anyone who witnesses the death struggles between the crocodile and black leopard, the python and the man eating Bengal tiger; anyone who sees the shots of the elephant herd and the pathetic plight of the lost baby elephant; anyone, indeed, who sees any art of "Bring 'Em Back Alive" knows that the picture which the Van Beuren Corporation has produced is the real thing.

It is impossible to convey in mere words the thrills of "Bring 'Em Back Alive." It is known that several of the sequences in this RKO-Radio picture were the result of weeks of patient waiting and they have demonstrated themselves to be well worth waiting for.

"Bring 'Em Back Alive" has such a diversity of convincing jungle episodes that it will be of interest not only for its sure-fire entertainment value but also for its educational worth. It is a practical lesson in natural history for young and old. It shows also the strange peoples of distant lands—the pictures were made in the Federated Malay States. Everyone will thrill to the unprecedented action shots, and learn a thing or two about the real jungle. "Bring 'Em Back Alive' is rated as ace-high entertainment and that rarity of rarities—something really new.

I'm called "The Song — with-out A Name," — Where I be-long — I can't ex-plain,

Peter Von Steeden, of New York's 400 Leads Famous Orchestra

New York City.—The real New Yorker wants sweet, soft music. So says Peter Van Steeden, original New Yorker on Broadway.

Van Steeden is of Dutch ancestry and represents Father Knickerbocker in New York's night life, being musical director at Whyte's Restaurant, a famous old Wall Street eating house that has recently moved to upper Fifth Avenue.

"The desire for quiet music is a reaction from the noise and the hustle and bustle around us," says the leader. "Most other cities like brass. New York prefers its music muted. This preference for quiet, sweet music has probably been the salvation of our popular music. If it had persisted in its blatant, early state, it could never have kept its hold on the dancers of the universe.

"While its throb and tempo keeps abreast with the speed at which we are going, its tone does a lot to soothe the tired business man.

"The simpler the song, the better the New Yorker likes it. Small towners adore elaborate arrangements and tricky and intricate rhythms. But 'The Song Without a Name,' simplest popular song since 'Three O'Clock in the Morning,' is the ideal New Yorker song. This melody is easy, the words are simple and straight forward."

Van Steeden belongs to New York's famous four hundred but prefers a strenuous life as musical director, to society.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Troop 53, J. W. Haygood, Scoutmaster

Rainy weather prevented our hike last Friday night, however, we had a very nice meeting with a good attendance. Some plans were made for our fall and winter program.

A check up was made to find out just who had earned merit badges or advanced some rank in Scouting during the holidays. It was found that some Scouts have actually spent all summer and not earned a single merit badge. This is very poor Scouting.

Troop 32, B. L. Archer, Scoutmaster

The boys of Troop 32 were all disappointed Friday as they could not have the all night hike as planned, but an enjoable evening was sent inside anyway.

The tumbling mats were brought out and the champions in wrestling wrist wrestling, etc., were decided

If the weather is permissable an all night hike will be staged next Friday.

Troop 52, J. A. Lindle, Scoutmaster

Troop 52 met last Friday night with 14 Scouts, the Scoutmaster and one committeeman present. The meeting was opened with Scout songs to which all the boys responded lustily. Scout G. W. Gjedde won the prize for the best version of a ghost story in a progressive story for the entire troop. Scout Willie Morsw gave an interesting talk on his hobby "radio" explaining the function of the tubes and other parts of a set. The Fox patrol was winner in a snappy game of "Steal the Bacon." The meeting was closed by repeating the Scout oath and law.

METHODIST CHURCH

The pastor has returned from his vacation and will preach next Sunday at 11 a. m. Rev. Connerly, who filled the pastor's place during his absence will remain with the Cameron church until the meeting of the Annual Conference, early in November, in the capacity of a Junior preacher. He will conduct the services next Sunday night; at that service the junior choir, under the direction of Miss Jessie Guffey will be in charge of the music. The senior choir with Mrs. A. J. Triggs as director, are re-organizing their work; they will be in charge of the music at the morning hour.

Many people have not attended church services during the summer months; let every one begin now to get back to regular attendance. To those who are indifferent to the matter of church attendance we commend these words of Edgar Guest, the well known writer, who is not a minister: "I go to church because I want my children to go to church. I want them to know something more of life than business, sport and selfish amusement, I know only one institution that will teach them that they are divine. The church will interfere with their pleasures at times, but their mother and I sometimes have to do that, and we hope that they will love us none the less because of it. The church will mystify and puzzle them and seem irksome to them now and then; but all things worth while demand something of us in sacrifice. I believe that the church and the things it stands for are necessary to our well-being."

C. A. LEHMBERG, Pastor.

WEEKLY COTTON LETTER

Supply

Although the weather has now improved, there has recently been entirely too much rain over the cotton belt. In Texas and some of the Central States the late rains damaged and lowered the grades of the open cotton and further promoted the increase of the boll weevils. The weevils are now inflicting serious damage in Southwest, Central and Eastern Texas, Central and Eastern Oklahoma, and the major portion of Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina.

About the only section of the belt where cotton is reported to be holding its own are West and Northwest Texas, West Oklahoma and parts of North Carolina.

In many sections of the Central and Eastern States a significant feature of the crop is the smallness of the bolls and this is attributed to the sharp reduction in the use of fertilizers.

Demand

In the short time of thirty days the prospect of cotton consumption in the United States has changed from about the poorest on record, to one of the best in several years. During the past season the United States made the worst showing of any of the large cotton consuming countries, but this season the writer expects our own country to be one of the bright spots in the world's consumption of cotton. Europe is expected to take more American cotton this season than last, but China and Japan should take less on account of their heavy buying of American cotton the past season, and because the new crop in China is substantially larger this season.

Political

It has been announced from Washington that the Reconstruction Corporation would lend fifty million dollars to the Farm Board and the Cooperative Associations for the purpose of holding their cotton off the market at the present time. Under present conditions this is a constructive move, as everything possible should be done to bring back farm products to a reasonable level.

Market

The market has enjoyed a large advance and is waiting on the next Government crop estimate to be issued today.

If the last report of 11,306,000 was correct, the estimate today should be smaller, as the crop has, no doubt, deteriorated since. While caution is suggested at these levels, general business conditions are improving and any substantial decline should meet with good buying from the mills.

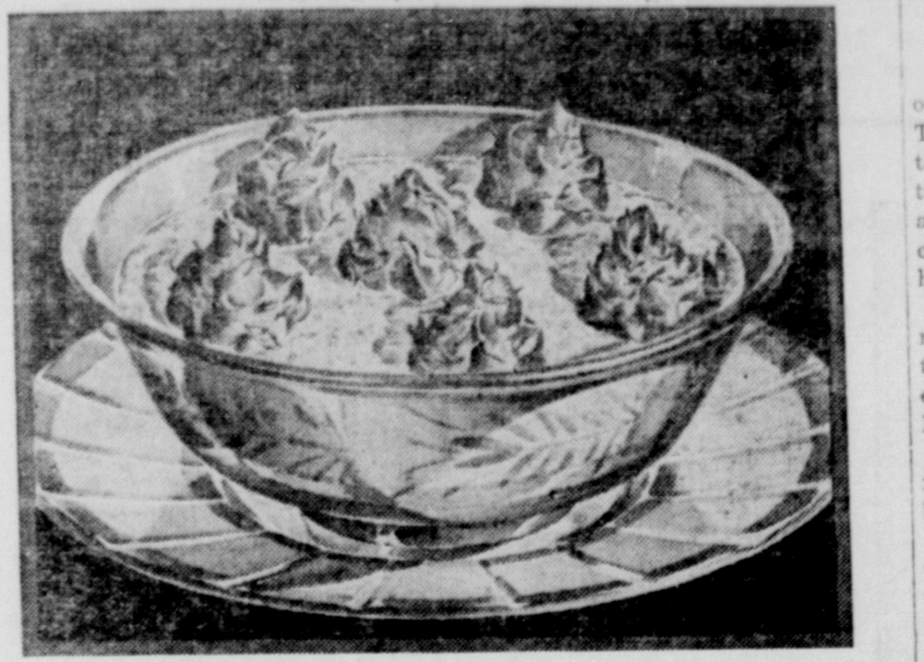
es from the code, "Bring 'Em Back Alive," which in later years he adopted formally. Tom Green County, Texas, offered a bounty of $2.50 for every coyote scalp delivered at the courthouse. So young Buck invented a scheme. Whenever butchering time was near, Frank would take the carcass of a calf and slip a rope around it. Then he would tie the rope to the pommel of his sddle and drag the carcass around to a spot he had chosen. The coyotes would get the scent and follow it to a ditch Frank had dug. It was then a case of good shooting and bringing the scalp to the courthouse.

He left Texas and went to Chicago where he worked as a bank clerk, always maintaining some contact with animals; and always following his self-planned study of natural history. He did not attend college, but thru his own efforts he acquired considerable scientific knowledge of animals, their habits, anatomy and peculiarities. In those days he acquired a great deal of information on some specimens which appear in "Bring 'Em Back Alive," the RKO-Radio picture—the giant monitor lizard and the honeybear, to name two—but which Mr. Buck did not actually see until years later.

He scrimped and saved enough money to finance a personal trip to South America and with his knowledge of ornithology and several lucky "breaks," he was able to cover the expenses of his trip and show a small profit. Obtaining financial backing, he began his career in earnest. In two years he made another trip to South America and his first to Africa. Since then not a year passed which did not find him, some of the time, in a part of the uncivilized world, "bringing 'em back alive." He could not resist adding a few live specimens when he went on the Van Beuren-Buck Expedition, which was planned as a purely motion picture assignment, directed by Clyde E. Elliott.

A. F. Mitchell of Corsicana, former resident here and now county engineer for that county was in Cameron Tuesday on business.

Winter Dried Fruits and Tapioca Aid Housewives in Menu Making



MAKING a resolution to budget the household allowance more carefully and yet to give the family nourishing and tasty meals, wives and mothers are on the look out for new recipes. For high days and holidays come and go but the task of providing three meals daily goes on all year.

The winter dried fruits—figs, raisins, apricots, dates and prunes—can be made into a wealth of delicious desserts at small cost. They are Nature's own sweets packed with sugar for winter energy and should appear on the table often during the cold weather.

Here is a colorful Apricot Tapioca that tactful wives will serve after the Monday pot-luck meal. Even Junior will be willing to eat his carrots if he is rewarded by such a dessert.

APRICOT TAPIOCA

- ¾ pound dried apricots
- 3 cups water
- ½ cup sugar
- 3 tablespoons quick cooking Tapioca
- ⅛ teaspoon salt

Wash apricots. Soak in 3 cups water 1 hour and cook until tender. Drain. To juice, add enough water to make 2 cups liquid. Add Tapioca and salt, and cook in double boiler 15 minutes, or until tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Add sugar. Cool. Force apricots through sieve. Fold pulp (about 1 cup) into tapioca mixture. Chill and serve with whipped cream. Serves 6.

FROM NORWAY

The lowly boarding house prune has come into its own, magically transformed by modern cook-craft into a variety of delicious desserts. Here is one of them. And it is so simple to make that you can put it on your list of last minute desserts for busy days.

NORWEGIAN PRUNE TAPIOCA

- 4 tablespoons quick cooking Tapioca
- ⅛ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon, or 1-inch stick cinnamon
- 2 cups unsweetened prune juice, or juice and water
- 4 tablespoons sugar
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 cup cooked prunes, seeded and finely cut

Add Tapioca, salt, and cinnamon to prune juice, and cook in double boiler 15 minutes, or until tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Remove cinnamon (if stick is used), add sugar, lemon juice, and prunes. Chill. Serve with cream. Serves 6.

PROHIBITION LEADER OF METHODIST CHURCH TO VOTE FOR SCIALIST

Cincinnati, Sept. 5—A denunciation of President Hoover by Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the Methodist Episcopal Church's board of temperance, prohibition and morals, created a furore today at the church's Ohio conference in session here.

Dr. Wilson told the conference last night that "the President deserted the dry forces the first day he was elected," and said, "I am voting for Norman Thomas for President."

The militant churchman today stood firmly behind his speech. "I'll stand by everything I said," he declared.

Conference leaders expressed determination to carry to the conference floor the issue of his criticism of the President. There were executive sessions, supposedly to determine the course to follow. But Dr. Wilson remained unshaken.

Some of the leaders said his speech was "purely political" and as such had no place before the conference.

The militant churchman asserted in his speech that "prohibition has never had half a chance;" charged that the President "has consistently appointed 'wets' to prominent offices in the administration of the Volstead Act," and concluded that "the ideas of November will determine whether the cause of prohibition is to be crucified between two thieves." He did not explain his choice of words.

Dr. Wilson's statements brought a storm of protest.

"Facts, facts, give us the facts," there was a cry from the audience at one point of the address.

Dr. Wilson paused a moment.

"I am giving you the facts, brethren," he said, and went on.

"He (the President)," he said, "has consistently appointed 'wets to prominent offices in the administration of the Volstead Act. He appointed a 'wet' cabinet, with one exception. He appointed the infamous Wickersham Commission of nine 'wets' and two 'drys' with one of the 'wets' the president of the 'smokiest' and 'wettest' woman's college in the United States. When a man pits his political prejudices against such facts as these, his feeling is not to vote for the man."

He himself, he said, is going to vote for Norman Thomas, candidate of the Socialist party, adding, "I am not here to tell you who to vote for. However, if Thmas gets 1,500,000 dry votes this fall, it is going to stop the Republican party. There will then be no more straddling of the issue and they will drop that part of their platform concerning prohibition like a hot cake.

"In this way only can we rebuke the betrayal of our cause. We can put up and elect candidates to the Senate, Congress and the State Legislatures and make it plain that the conventions bind only the candidates for President and Vice President."

Helped By Cardui

Here's the true story of how Cardui helped Mrs. H. E. Dunaway, of McComb, Miss., as written by herself:

"I was sick and rather discouraged. I was so weak and thin, I was not able to do my work as it should be done. This made me fret a good deal, and did not help my condition.

"I had pains across my back and lower part of my body. My nights were spent in rolling from one side of the bed to the other, hoping I would soon go to sleep. Then when morning would come, I would be just as tired as when I went to bed. A neighbor, seeing how badly I felt, told me to try Cardui. After I had taken one bottle, I was much better. I kept on taking Cardui, and I was stronger and slept much better at night."

Idaho Spuds Selling For Two Bits A Sack, And 20 Pounds Beans Free

Ranchers in Idaho evidently will not have to pay a heavy income tax this ear.

E. T. Ratliff of the Palo Verde Creamery ranch, who has just returned from a vacation spent near Twin Falls, bought 25c worth of potatoes one day. Imagine his surprise when he was given a 130 pound sack of fine Idaho russetts for a quarter.

Before leaving for Blythe, Mr. Ratliff decided to go to the market and buy some of those fine Idaho pink beans to bring home. He asked for 25c worth's, and the clerk said "where is our car? You can't carry a quarter's worth."

"Alright, let me have about 20 pounds," he replied. When the twenty pounds were weighed out the clerk refused to make any charge, saying that the amount was too insignificant.

Gasoline was selling for 39c a gallon. Fuel in that part of the country was scarce and farmers had to pay 25c for a half sack of coal with which to cook their cheap beans and potatoes. Mr. Ratliff says he is glad to be back where farmers can get at least enough to rattle for their crops.—Palo Verde News, California.

Man Eating Tiger Is Public Enemy No. 1 In Jungle Life

The man-eating tiger has the doubtful distinction of being Public Enemy Number One in the jungle, according to Frank Buck, whose "Bring 'Em Back Alive," RKO-Radio Picture, comes to the Milam Theatre next Sunday and Monday. The tiger is truly a gangster, according to Mr. Buck. Like the human outlaw he is never the same after drawing human blood; he resents any other animal's "muscling in" on his territory; and he shares the same craftiness and savagery.

DIZZINESS

relieved by Black-Draught

"I decided to take Thedford's Black-Draught, as I had been having bilious spells," writes Mr. Charles E. Stevens, of Columbus, Ind. "When I get bilious, I feel sleepy and tired and do not feel like doing my work. It is hard to tell how I feel, but I do not feel good. I get awfully dizzy. I know then that I had better take something. After I found how good Black-Draught is, that is what I have used. I guess it rids me of the bile, for I feel better—don't feel like I am dropping off to sleep every time I sit down. That, to me, is a very bad feeling."

Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for CHILDREN.

RAINFALL HARMFUL TO COTTON CROP IN MILAM COUNTY

More than nine inches of rain fell in Cameron Saturday night and Sunday with resulting heavy damage to open cotton and flooding of low lands in creek and river bottoms over the trade territory.

Correspondingly heavy rains were reported to have fallen on the water shed of the San Gabriel river and tributaries and Little River was at flood stage in the early morning hours of Sunday and by day break the swollen stream had begun to empty its waters into the farm areas of the bottoms. Fear was expressed for a time that the flood of 1921 might be duplicated but the waters receded. The river began rising again Monday but by Tuesday morning had slowly retreated to its channel.

Elm Creek was at flood stage on Sunday morning overflowing the bottoms with heavy damage to cotton.

Traffic was interrupted on various highways but the route South and East was open and hundreds of autos and trucks passed through Cameron an over the bridged highway through the bottom.

Rain continued to fall as late as Tuesday night.

It was estimated that between four and five thousand bales of cotton were lost with a total value of approximately $200,000.

Damage to staple will be considerable but the rains will produce more cotton and perhaps overcome the loss sustained.

S. D. Rudder and family who have been living near Cameron have moved to town for the school year.

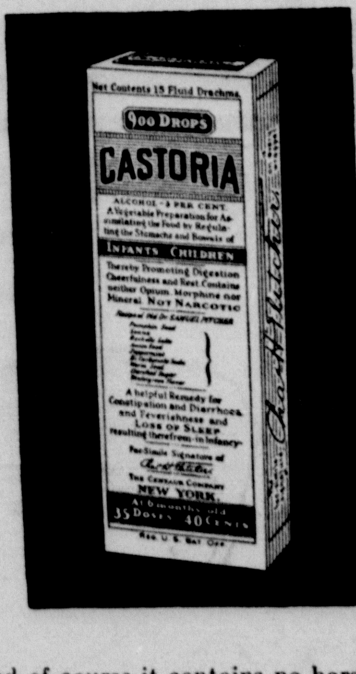
Made specially for BABIES and CHILDREN



Physicians tell us that one condition is nearly always present when a child has a digestive upset, a starting cold or other little ailment. Constipation.

When little bowels get clogged, body wastes accumulate, and poisons and infection find a fertile breeding place.

The first step towards relief is to rid the body of impure wastes. And for this nothing is better than genuine time-proven Castoria!

Castoria is a pure vegetable preparation made specially for babies and children. This means it is mild and gentle enough for their delicate organs. Yet it is always effective. And of course it contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics.

Genuine Castoria always bears the name, Chas. H. Fletcher. It now comes in two sizes. The new family size contains about 2½ times the amount in the regular size.

Chas H. Fletcher.
